

Mr. Matthew L. Selker

"We live in a rapidly changing business climate" Selker declares, "with change as the one constant force. During this great time of organizational and global flattening, leaders need to know how they can become knowledgeable players in the game of change, instead of confused bystanders wondering what is happening."

Mr. Matthew L. Selker is an organizational development and change consultant for mattselker.org. He is a highly experienced change specialist who brings his clients extensive expertise in resonant leadership, change management, experience optimization, and customer experience management. He assists organizational leaders to understand their environment, themselves, and their customers so they can precisely target their assets, align and attune themselves and their teams successfully with organizational goals, and operate with vision and competence.

Mr. Selker has been an Organizational Development and Change professional for 10 years. His ability to help companies and individuals understand, integrate and accelerate change makes him an priceless asset to organizations. In his most recent corporate and nonprofit experience, Mr. Selker served as the Executive Director of a Community Development Corporation involved in a catalytic innovation in one of the most poverty-stricken census tracts in Erie, Pennsylvania.

Mr. Selker received his BBA from Edinboro University of Pennsylvania, and is pursuing a Masters in Positive Organizational Development and Change from Case Western Reserve University Weatherhead School of Management and MPA from Cleveland State University Levin School of Public Affairs. Prior experience includes Executive Director of Invest Erie Community Development Corporation and President/CEO of Your Wireless Connection, Inc (wireless technology regional provider).
